CONGRATULATIONS TO DON ADAM ON INDESCRIBABLE'S
WIN IN THE GRADE 3 DOUBLEDODGARE S. SHE NOW HAS
6 WINS AND EARNINGS OF $394, 595

OPTIONS ARE A BEAUTIFUL THING

Already guaranteed a spot in the GI Kentucky Derby starting gate with GII Lane's End S. hero Hold Me Back (Giant's Causeway) and possibly another with Mr. Hot Stuff (Tiznow), Bill Casner and Kenny Troutt's WinStar Farm added to its hand in yesterday's GII Coolmore Lexington S., courtesy of Advice (Chapel Royal). Patiently handled by Garrett Gomez, the dark bay was last of 11 as Pitched Perfectly (Pleasantly Perfect) carved out fractions of :23.80 and :47.90. Still toward the back as favored Square Eddie (Smart Strike) catapulted to the front after making an eye-catching move on the far turn, Advice was guided off the rail into the stretch and brushed slightly with Conservative (Unbridled's Song). Beginning to roll once clear, Advice ran past Square Eddie like he was standing still and outkicked Conservative to the wire. Cont. p2

OAKS LOSES A STAR

Champion Stardom Bound (Tapit) will be given 60 days off and bypass the GI Kentucky Oaks, it was announced yesterday. "She just dulled out; she hasn't trained forwardly at all since [finishing third in the GI] Ashland [Apr. 4]," IEAH Co-President Michael Iavarone told Daily Racing Form. "It seems like we're at the point where she just needs a freshening. She was going to breeze

[Sunday], but [exercise rider] Michelle [Nevin] told me she'd be afraid to breeze the filly. That's all I needed to hear. She would have to be 100 percent to go against Rachel Alexandra, and now that there's this question it doesn't make sense. It's disappointing because we really wanted to run in that race. She deserves to run against the best when she's at her best." Acquired by IEAH and partners for $5.7 million at FTKNOV, the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies heroine annexed the GI Las Virgenes S. Feb. 7 and GI Santa Anita Oaks Mar. 7 for her new connections, prior to placing third in the Ashland.

GRADE 2 COOLMORE LEXINGTON S.

Trainer Todd Pletcher, who watched from Florida, said, “[Advice is] still kind of putting it all together. I thought he was still just a touch green when he made the lead. He’s a horse that’s shown a lot of ability.”

EquiSport

Gomez added, “[Advice] had some antics; at one time he lugged in, at one time he lugged out. We were just trying to push all the right buttons and see if we could get him to run straight, and he did so willingly today.”

Advice, a $170,000 OBSFEB graduate, began his career in style, airing over the Arlington Polytrack by eight lengths July 3. Freshened thereafter, the dark bay returned to cross the wire second, beaten a neck in the GIII Arlington-Washington Futurity Sept. 13, but was disqualified and placed third. Favored at 7-2 in Square Eddie’s GI Lane’s End Breeders’ Futurity Oct. 4, Advice tired to finish ninth after making a strong middle-move in his juvenile finale. Slightly favored in his sophomore bow in a Santa Anita allowance Feb. 26, he closed to complete the trifecta. Attempting dirt for the first time in the Sunland Derby Mar. 29, the WinStar colorbearer finished fifth, beaten five lengths, last out. Big Effort From Square Eddie...

J. Paul Reddam’s Square Eddie, making his first start since finishing second to the sidelined The Pamplemousse (Kafwain) in the GIII San Rafael S.

Jan. 17, ran a huge race in defeat. After missing the break, he was hung out wide on the first turn beneath Edgar Prado. Last term’s Breeders’ Futurity winner made a big move on the turn for home from 10th, and looked like a winner in the stretch, but got tired late and had to settle for third. “We just didn’t get lucky today,” Prado said. “He broke a little flat footed and I had to make a move and go wide because I didn’t want to wait for something to open up on the inside. He made a great run and was trying really hard. He gave a 110 percent today.” Trainer Doug O’Neill said it was likely that Square Eddie punched his Derby ticket. “I have to talk to the Reddams,” O’Neill commented. “I haven’t had a chance to speak to Paul yet, but I’m very proud of the effort. With a clean break, I think he’d be right there.”

 Also Ran: Commentator, No Advantage, Magnum (Arg), Mast Track, Zappa, Ah Day, Delaware River.

All eyes were on MGISW Commentator (Distorted Humor), but it was hometown hero Researcher who stole the show. The five-year-old capped 2008 with a four-race winning streak, including the GIII Queens County H. at the Big A Dec. 13. Fifth in Aqueduct's Szymie H. Feb. 28, the bay returned to Charles Town Mar. 28 with a 22 1/4-length allowance tally, establishing a new track record for nine furlongs in the process. Backed as the 3-1 second choice here, he stayed close to 6-5 favorite Commentator through fractions of :24 and :47.51. Given his cue on the turn for home by Kendrick Carmouche, Researcher gained command and drew off in the stretch to win for fun, improving his record to seven-for-11 at Charles Town.

Seattle Smooth annexed last April's Bay Meadows Oaks for trainer Julio Canani before placing a good third in the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. May 16. She returned to the West Coast with a ninth-place finish in the grassy GII San Clemente H. July 26. Transferred to Anthony Dutrow, the bay ran away with a 7 1/4-length tally in Delaware's Go For Wand S. Aug. 30, then closed out the year with a victory over champion Proud Spell (Proud Citizen) in the GII Fitz Dixon Cotillion S. at Philly Park Sept. 20. Working bullets for her return, Seattle Smooth raced in third as Are We Dreamin and Distorted Passion exchanged blows on the lead. Revving up three wide beneath a confident Ramon Dominguez on the turn for home, the Mercedes Stables colorbearer hit the front in the stretch and drew off to win under a hand ride. Dancing Allstar, champion two-year-old filly in Canada in 2007, hadn't raced since August, but a sparkling worktab, which included four bullet moves, had her ready for a big effort here. The chestnut had a Canadian stakes six-race winning streak snapped when a distant third in the GIII Azalea S. at Calder in July. She returned to Woodbine with a disappointing seventh in the Duchess S. Aug. 9 before ending the term with a fifth-place finish as the 4-5 chalk in the Hong Kong Jockey Club H. at Hastings Aug. 30. Sent to the front by James McAleney here, Dancing Allstar drew off to a clear lead in the stretch and had enough left in the tank to post her first graded stakes victory.

Mr Gruff made two appearances during the winter of his four-year-old campaign, but was sidelined following a close second last March on the Santa Anita main track. The son of the talented grass mare Ruff resumed his career with a front-running graduation over this course and distance Jan. 3, then missed by a nose in an allowance over the same trip Jan. 31. He came back to score at 2-5 in another hillside affair Mar. 11, and was deemed ready for a big class jump here. Sent off as the 5-2 third choice, the dark bay had a slight advantage while getting the half-mile split in :43.61. He opened up a bit after crossing the main track and held sway late to affirm his horse-for-course status. "The reason I jumped him from an a-other-than into this race was to see if he was good enough to handle stakes horses, and obviously, he is," confirmed trainer Ron Ellis. "I think being a hill specialist can be a big advantage for that Breeders' Cup race [Turf Sprint]. I'll probably keep him lightly raced, pointing for that race [at Oak Tree Nov. 7]."

Stepping up on a debut fourth at Leopardstown last August, Vocalised opened his account back at the Foxrock venue the following month and claimed a first stakes badge in the Apr. 5 Listed Loughbrown S. at the Curragh on seasonal return last time. Employing a stalking role in fifth from the break here, he made smooth headway to challenge at the two pole and was driven out in the closing stages to assert superiority. "He's ran a very good race and won well," winning trainer Jim Bolger told PA Sport. "He's not in [the May 2 G1 2000 Guineas] at Newmarket, and I think the plan is to run him in the [May 10 G1] Poule d'Essai des Poulains [at Longchamp]." Purchased by agent Tom Gentry for $560,000 at Keeneland September, Vocalised boasts as his second dam the first-class champion Serena's Song. His dam, Serena's Tune, was a $1-million KEEJUL yearling acquisition by Winsong Farms who was later sold privately to Hill 'n' Dale and partners. Vocalised is Serena Tune's fourth foal. Her first, the stakes winner Serena's Cat (Storm Cat), was a $1.4-million KEENOV weanling, while her next two--Mutawahej (Storm Cat) ($3.1-million KEESEP) and ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Noble Sound (Vindication) ($2.8-million KEESEP)--also brought seven figures. Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's G1 Dewhurst S. third Finjaan (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) was a late scratch from the contest due to the soft track condition. Lahaleeb broke through in a course-and-distance maiden last August and improved one place in each of four stakes starts to ultimately claim victory in the G2 Rockfel S. at Newmarket last time Oct. 18. She continued that theme with a game victory here, and booked her ticket to the May 3 G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket. Roused along to occupy a mid-field berth through the early fractions, the bay made headway into contention at the quarter-mile marker and came under a drive inside the closing panel to nail Super Sleuth in the final stride. "She was a little ring rusty and was also lethargic in the early stages, but once I changed my hands and gave her a tickle behind the saddle she responded really well," explained winning jockey Darryll Holland. "She's very tough and can only beat what's put in front of her. I think the extra furlong [of the 1000 Guineas] and better ground will help her."

Fourth in the Listed Prix Michel Houyvet at Deauville last August, Enroller had his Classic aspirations dented when fifth in the G1 St Leger at Doncaster the following month, and lined up for this off a fourth in the G2 Prix Chaudenay at Longchamp Oct. 4. Racing in a handy fourth until inching into second at halfway, the bay cruised to the front with three furlongs remaining and stayed on relentlessly in the closing stages to secure a first pattern win in decisive fashion. "He has improved over the winter, and it's a great result as he'd been working so well at home," said winning rider Martin Dwyer. "He did it great and travelled so well throughout that I really had to wait before pushing the button. He loved the ground, and that was a big bonus." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Johnny Murtagh partnered both colts in a racecourse gallop at The Curragh last month and, while no decision has been made on his ride in the main feature, the Ballydoyle conditioner gave an upbeat bulletin to Racing Post. "Both horses are doing their work and there have been no hiccups," O'Brien told the trade daily. "Everything has gone to plan so far over the past few weeks. It's so far, so good, with them."

"Basically, we're continuing to do what we've been doing with him all along and following the same schedule we used leading up to the Florida Derby," trainer Todd Pletcher told Daily Racing Form. "I was very pleased with the way he went today. He relaxed well the first part, finished up good, and galloped out strong." Last-start G1 George Ryder S. winner Vision and Power repeated the dose in a vintage Doncaster H., where less than two lengths separated the first nine across the line, and seven lengths accounted for the entire 19-horse field. Overlooked somewhat in the betting despite dropping 11 pounds from his last effort, Vision and Power settled fourth from the rear, but, rounding the turn, jockey Jim Cassidy allowed the gelding to accelerate from out very wide and the pair got up for the win. Cont. p9

Whobegotyou was an eye-catching third, making up considerable ground from second last at the 800 meters. Trainer Joe Pride said Cassidy had defied the odds by pouncing late from nine wide. "All I was thinking the whole race was that you cannot come wide, and you cannot come from the back, and he did it," Pride said. "It is just an amazing win. I bought him here for a welter about nine months ago, and he plugged home and ran fourth and I thought I was happy with the run, but this is the Doncaster! His last 100 meters was just unbelievable, they way he collared them. There is no secret, he is just a good horse." Owner Nick Moraitis paid tribute to Vision and Power's initial trainer Robert Smerdon, who suggested the gelding needed a change of scenery, and he was subsequently transferred to 35-year-old Pride in Sydney.

In a day of emphatic race finishes, Daffodil did her part, settling midfield and wide before zipping to a 2 1/4-length win from Think Money. The A$4.80 favorite Miss Darcey sprinted late from just off the pace to take third. Just out of the frame at her last two starts, Daffodil was fourth in the New Zealand Oaks at Trentham Mar. 14 and again fourth over 2000 meters at Awapuni on Mar. 28 before being sent to Sydney.

Trainer Kevin Gray said, "It was a great thrill; she only wanted a bit of luck, and we got it today." Jockey Hugh Bowman added, "She is such a little filly, and she was so relaxed in the run, other runners were just pushing her wherever they liked. I thought, 'What am I going to do here?' so I kept her balanced and coordinated. I was tempted to go around them at the 600 meters, but I thought 'No,' because she had been bumped around, so I was atient. They did say she had a good turn of foot, and they weren't kidding."

Jumping from the inside barrier, the beautifully bred Manhattan Rain fulfilled his destiny, scoring a powerful 1 1/4-length victory. The half-brother to champion sire Redoute's Choice (Aus), raced by breeder Muzaffar Yaseen's Teeley Assets, jumped from the inside barrier and settled just off a cracking pace set by Rostova early. Jockey Steven King allowed the headstrong Rostova her head at the top of the straight and she opened up by daylight, but, at the 200-meter mark, Manhattan Rain pounced on a tiring Rostova. Tickets motored home from three wide to snare second. Manhattan Rain was a last-start third to Phelan Ready (Aus) (More Than Ready) in the G1 Golden Slipper. S at Rosehill Apr. 4, when he struggled in heavy going. The bay was runner-up on debut Jan. 31 in a juvenile handicap over 1100 meters and again in the Listed Canonbury S., behind Tickets at Randwick Feb. 14. He earned his first victory in his third outing, when scoring in the G3 Skyline S. effortlessly by almost two lengths at Randwick Mar. 14. The winning trainer, Gai Waterhouse, said the colt was a star ever since she saw him as a youngster. "He was the most beautiful, perfectly put-together colt I've seen," Waterhouse said. "But he was very slow-thinking. He has kicked on, and every time I served it up to him, he's enjoyed it very much and got on with the job. When you have these big babies, as these colts are, it takes a lot of work to look after them, but he is like cream that has risen to the top." Waterhouse said Manhattan Rain would point to the G1 Champagne S. at Randwick Apr. 25. Phelan Ready was lacklustre along the rails and will return to Queensland for a spell. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Three Group 1 Winners for Shantha's Choice...

The fairytale story of blue hen mare Shantha's Choice (Aus) (Canny Lad {Aus}--Dancing Show, by Nijinsky II), owned by Sri Lankan businessman Muzaffar Yaseen, just gets better and better. The 16-year-old mare, a permanent resident at Coolmore, is the crowning glory of a broodmare band numbering 60 owned by Yaseen's Teeley Assets, which is managed by Iris O'Farrell.

Shantha's Choice was knocked down for a sale-topping A$220,000 at the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale in 1994, the same year her half-brother Hurricane Sky (Aus) (Star Watch {Aus}) won the G1 Blue Diamond S. After an undistinguished racing career, Shantha's Choice was sent to Danehill, with Redoute's Choice the result. The glamorous bay shot to fame in autumn 1999 when he won the Blue Diamond S., but the colt was sensationally scratched from the Golden Slipper S. just hours before the race when he had a temperature. The Slipper has proven elusive for Yaseen since.

The rising statesman overcame a disrupted preparation with floods at Coffs Harbour on the NSW north coast, forcing trainer Joe Janiak to relocate to Sydney.

The outfit attracted much publicity when Janiak decided to replace the gelding's long-time rider Jay Ford with Nash Rawiller, arguing that Ford, who had other engagements at a much lighter weight, would carry too much dead weight on the seven-time Group 1 winner. Coming off a 23-week spell, Takeover Target trained smartly Apr. 7 and again looked the part galloping between races Apr. 11. Taking on a field of five Group 1 winners, Takeover Target stuck close to early leader Northern Meteor before cruising to a 1 1/2-length lead at the 800-meter pole. Up the rise, he was in full flight and simply unstoppable, with Northern Meteor a gallant second ahead of fast-finishing Apache Cat. Janiak indicated he would point to the G1 Goodwood H. May 2 in Adelaide ahead of a tilt at the Krisflyer International in Singapore and, possibly, the G1 Golden Jubilee at Royal Ascot. "What a great run; it was just magic, to be able to get away from the class of horses he did today, just beautiful," Janiak said. "He is just an honest horse--he enjoys racing. He's a happy horse and he always puts his best in. It was a beautiful start, and all he wanted to do was race. He needed that run, and he will only improve on it." Rawiller, returning to scale amid joyous celebrations, said, "I was more or less just a passenger. [I] just tried to ride him more or less where he wanted to be. He was brilliant out of the gates, and the more he went, the more he got into his rhythm. I sorted of waited for him to top the rise and get him balanced, and he exploded".

Mike Mitchell has saddled the last two winners of this marathon affair, including defending champion Big Booster, and will also lead over Church Service this afternoon. "I don't believe I've ever won a stakes three straight years," Mitchell said. "It would be great, especially because the San Juan is such a fun race. You don't see races of this distance often in this country, and that's what makes it so enjoyable." Church Service edged Big Booster for second in the inaugural Breeders' Cup Marathon on Santa Anita's Pro-Ride Oct. 25, then finished third in the GI Hollywood Turf Cup Dec. 6. He is coming off a half-length second to Spring House in the GII San Luis Obispo H. Feb. 22.

Big Booster, freshened up after his Breeders' Cup run, came up a neck short in his latest, the 12-furlong GIII Tokyo City H. on the Santa Anita main track Mar. 28. Midships wired the field going a mile and a half in the GII San Luis Rey H. Mar. 21 and looms a danger on the front end this time.

Lui Rei took the G3 Premio Primi Passi at the San Siro in June before annexing the G2 Prix Robert Papin at Maisons-Laffitte the next month and finishing down the field in the G1 Prix Morny at Deauville in August. Signing off with a third in the G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte in November, he returned with the perfect warm-up win in a conditions event at this venue last time Mar. 15 and has the able assistance of Frankie Dettori. Last year's Listed Premio Rumon scorer Turati warrants respect, having looked sharp when making a winning return in a course-and-distance conditions event Mar. 29, while Ad Honores and Desert Cry reoppose after finishing first and second, respectively, in the Mar. 29 Listed Premio Pisa. The latter gets a three-pound pull for a 3/4-of-a-length defeat by that rival.

Having won this Derby trial four times from 2001 to 2004, Aidan O'Brien has gone without a win since, but bids to put that right with a quartet headed by last year's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud hero Fame and Glory. The runner-up in that 10-furlong contest was Drumbeat (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) and, although he was beaten in Wednesday's Listed Feilden S., the form has yet to receive a thorough examination. He has to give five pounds to all rivals including Mourayan, who along with Vitruvian Man and Tarankali bids to add to trainer John Oxx's tally of four winners since 1988. The former was runner-up to stable companion Sea the Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) in the G2 Beresford S. at The Curragh in September before taking the Listed Eyrefield S. over this track and trip in November. "Mourayan has had a nice winter and a good preparation, and is ready to make a start," Oxx told PA Sport. "He's an idle home worker, so he'll come on for the run, but he's fit enough and working well enough to run a good race."

Diamondrella put her four-race winning streak on the line and ran her skein to five with a furious late rally. Winner of a six-furlong Belmont allowance June 12, the bay cleared her next condition by a neck at that track July 19 and added a 3/4-length score in the restricted Positive Gal S. in Elmont Sept. 5. When last seen, the Castle Top colorbearer was up for a nose victory in the Oct. 12 Xtra Heat H. at Belmont and was the second choice in a terrific betting race. Well back as Marina Ballerina set fractions of :21.47 and :44.33, Diamondrella began her rally on the turn, but had her momentum temporarily stymied when she was steadied off the heels favored Genuine Devotion (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) in the stretch. But once free of that traffic, the five-year-old leveled off and came her final sixteenth of a mile in an unconscious :5 2/5 to win going away. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Despite her best efforts coming on or near the lead, Precious Princess was settled off the pace by Rene Douglas, went after favored J Z Warrior (Harlan's Holiday) entering the stretch and drove past for a one-length victory as a 3-1 choice. The blinkers went on for a sloppy one-mile Gulfstream maiden Mar. 18, but she raced five wide in a five-horse field and tired to third at odds-on. Like her Lexington S.-winning stablemate, she was shedding the shades this time around, but was offered at odds of just 5-2. With the pace while four wide, the $32,000 FTKJUL yearling and $310,000 OBSMAR two-year-old came after pace-setting Siren Serenade (Unbridled's Song) in the stretch, got past her and held off Gold d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro) to score by a nose. High Note: More $50K Raised for Disabled Jockeys:

Riders Up!, a karaoke competition held at the Keeneland Entertainment Center Apr. 17, raised more than $50,000 for the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund. Among the performers were Performers included Patti Cooksey, Angel Cordero Jr., Jon Court, Pat Day, Kent Desormeaux, Earlie Fires, Alan Garcia, James Graham, Corey Lanerie, Chris McCarron, Dean Mernagh, Edgar Prado, Herbie Rivera Jr., Jamie Theriot, John Velazquez, Charlie Woods, John Oldham and Jessica Oldham Stith. "I want to thank all the sponsors who made it possible. This was a fabulous event, and we're thrilled to have raised this much money for such a worthy cause," said Keeneland President and CEO Nick Nicholson. "Not only was it a great cause, it was a great time, too. The jockeys, the crowd, the judges-- everyone really got into the spirit of the evening. I can see this growing into one of our signature events." Sponsored by Keeneland and the Jockeys Guild, the event was also boosted by various levels of sponsorship, which accounted for $30,000 of the sum raised. Gold sponsors were Darley, Ramsey Farm and Breeders' Cup; silver sponsors were WinStar Farm and Vinery; and bronze sponsors were Denali Stud, Equibase, Meyocks and O'Hara Racing, Padua Stables and Shadwell Farms. An additional $20,000 was raised via ticket sales and donations, including $10,000 donated by Mark Hoffman, co-owner of recent GI Ashland S. heroine Hooh Why. Cornett Advertising, Thoroughbred Printing, MSI Production Services, Turf Catering and the NTRA Safety and Integrity Alliance offered in-kind services. The Judge's Choice Award went to Albarado and Rivera for "To All the Girls I've Loved Before," while the People's Choice Award was granted to Cooksey, Court, Day, Fires, McCarron, John Oldham and Woods for "Do You Think I'm Sexy."

 March to Victory was runner-up in a nine-furlong allowance over the Belmont turf Sept. 18, then was a good third in an 11-furlong test on the grass at the Meadowlands Oct. 14. Put away for the season thereafter, the bay had a pair of 2009 starts to his credit, a highly-rated allowance win at Gulfstream Park Feb. 12 and was steadied early in a Mar. 12 allowance before finishing willingly for fourth behind Wicked Style (Macho Uno). Rated off the pace while three wide as the lead changed hands several times up front, March to Victory bided her time until the stretch and unleashed a powerful late run to score handily. Honoring Eddie Logan Today:

The City of Arcadia, California, has proclaimed today "Eddie Logan Day," honoring the famed shoeshine attendant who passed away Jan. 31 at the age of 98.

Logan plied his trade from Santa Anita's opening day in 1934 until Jan. 3, when he suffered a stroke. The racetrack will unveil a bronze plaque of Logan in a winner's circle ceremony this afternoon, and it will be displayed near his former stand. "There really has been a tangible void here since Eddie's passing," said Santa Anita President Ron Charles. "He meant so much to all of us who were in contact with him, and we still have fans asking about him. When he had the stroke, we made a decision to leave his shoeshine stand vacant until he returned, and then we decided to leave it unattended for the remainder of the meet, out of respect." Charles added, "We are very proud of the plaque and we think it's only fitting that it overlooks the area where he brought so much joy and professionalism for so many years. It will become a permanent part of Santa Anita, just as the Kingsbury Fountain and the Seabiscuit monument in the paddock gardens area are. We're confident Eddie's family, friends and all of those who knew or heard of him are going to treasure this for all time."

HIGH ROCK TO HETRAIE

Last year's impressive G3 Prix la Force winner High Rock (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}--Hint of Silver, by Alysheba) will stand at Haras de la Hetraie at a fee of a fee of €1,700, Jour de Galop have revealed. Sent off the favorite for the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) on the strength of his six-length success in that Longchamp trial, the Jean-Claude Rouget-trained chestnut was fourth in the Chantilly Classic and failed to make the track again. High Rock, a half to the 2001 G3 Prix Andre Baboin winner Homeland (Fr) (Highest Honor {Fr}), was also the winner of the 2007 G3 Prix de Conde at Longchamp.
